

NEVADA GOVERNOR
BRIAN SANDOVAL

DETR INTERIM DIRECTOR
DENNIS PEREA

Media Contact:
Mae Worthey
wmworthey@nvdeetr.org
o (702) 486.7991
c (702) 249.6324

www.nvdeetr.org

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
Sept. 23, 2014

DETR to Honor Employers Who Hire Jobseekers with Disabilities

Las Vegas, NV —The state of Nevada’s Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation (DETR), Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation Division will honor four Nevada employers for their outstanding efforts to hire people with disabilities into their workforces on Wednesday, September 24th at the Grand Sierra Resort at 4:30 p.m. in the Crystal Ballroom.

Awards will be presented to Starbucks, OfficeMax, Arrow Electronics and Goodwill of Sacramento, said Shelley Hendren, administrator for DETR’s Rehabilitation Division.

“We are pleased to honor these companies for their commitment to employing people with disabilities,” Hendren said. “These employers realize that people with disabilities are qualified and dedicated employees who contribute tremendously to the workforce.” We hope this inspires other employers to also hire individuals with disabilities.”

Follow us: www.facebook.com/rehabilitation.detr; <https://twitter.com/DETRJobConnect>;
<https://www.youtube.com/user/DETRNV>

DETR is comprised of the Employment Security Division, Equal Rights Commission, Rehabilitation Division, the Information Development and Processing Division and the Research and Analysis Bureau. DETR works in partnership with the Nevada JobConnect System to provide training and job placement services to job seekers and to assist employers in hiring practices.