

Summer Business Institute features an eight-week paid internships for inner city high school youth which includes mentoring, life skills, work readiness training. The students benefit from both on the job experience and the workshops. The students work Monday-Thursday with Friday being workshop days. The program supports the continuation of their academic and professional careers beyond high school.